N.Y. Homosexuals Protest Raids

NEW YORK, June 30 (AP) — Police cleared the streets in the Sheridan Square area of Greenwich Village early Sunday as crowds of young men complained of police harassment of homosexuals. Three persons were arrested.

The Stonewall Inn has been the focal point of the disturbances since a police raid early Saturday and an ensuing melee resulted in 13 arrests and injuries to four policemen.

Dail 7-1-69